

Do you need prizes for your next event?

Charity Escapes is an exciting fundraising charity that specialises in sourcing donated holidays and experiences.

We know that finding auction and raffle prizes is difficult and in some cases it can be expensive. Our aim is to make it easier for corporates and fundraisers by offering a range of prizes to help raise money at fundraising events.

Charity Escapes works with hotels, holiday home owners, and restaurateurs who are willing to donate prizes and experiences for a wide variety of good causes.

Since September 2017, Charity Escapes have sourced over 400 prizes and to date has helped over 120 charities, large and small. Some of the prizes available are featured on our website (www.charityescapes.com) but the variety and number of prizes on offer is growing all the time.

We are currently working with Small Luxury Hotels of the World, Hilton Hotels, Malmaison and many others.

In return for offering a prize to help you raise money, we ask two things:

1. A Tweet and Facebook post thanking the prize donor
2. For 16.6% plus VAT (so 20%) to come back to us from the total amount our prize raised (E.g. if one of our holidays sold at auction for £500, we would ask for £100 to come back to us. If the prize is used in a raffle, we have an allocated amount set to each prize which we agree with you before your event)

We are not-for-profit and the money we ask to come back to us is to help cover our reasonable costs. There are no other charges for providing these prizes.

If you'd like to take a look at our current selection of available prizes please go to www.charityescapes.com/available-prizes.

Remember, we are sourcing new prizes all the time, so register now on our website to secure a prize (or two) for your next fundraising event!
